3. Aichelburg Forest Castle
The monument to the enlightened owner of the Maršov manor, Berthold Aichelburg, can be accessed individually after picking up the keys to enter at the Veselý výlet Information Centre (Fun Trip Info Centre) in Horní Maršov and set on an adventurous journey to meet the lord of the castle.

4. Stations of the Cross
Just 200 m from the Veselý výlet Information Centre in Horní Maršov, the historic walk, The stations of the Cross, begins lined with enamel paintings by the contemporary Czech artist Aleš Lamr. It will take its visitors to the settlement of Stará Hora, where the best-preserved pieces of folk architecture in the Krkonoše Mountains can be seen.

5. Renaissance Church of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary
The oldest completely reconstructed building in the Eastern Giant Mountains with a Renaissance baptistery and a Baroque altar. The keys to enter the church can be borrowed in the DOTEK Info colonial centre.

6. DOTEK
Tradition, Ecology and Culture restoration House situated in a reconstructed baroque rectory offers entertainment and education, e.g. a playful exhibition about our civilization and nature, a large self-serviced puppet theatre, topic tours, quizzes, a natural garden and an 'Info colonial' (information centre), open all year round.

7. Magic Giant Mountains “Do Krakonošova”
When you enter the exhibition, you will find yourself in a different world – a world of fairy-tale characters, singing birds and the peaceful countryside of the Krkonoše Mountains where you can meet many different elves, watermen from the Úpa River and other characters. You will be able to visit the Devil's Mill and Mr. Trautenberg's living room. The whole journey is accompanied by an educational interactive game.

8. Žacléř
The foothill town is an ideal starting point for trips to the Czech and Polish side of the Giant Mountains. The rich history of the region is on display in the City Museum and Information Centre. The educational trail will take you to the place where Jan Ámos Komenský left his homeland in 1628 forever.

9. Mining open-air museum
The site of the Jan Šverma mine is the last surviving reminder of deep coal mining in Eastern Bohemia, which dates back to the 16th century. The set of mining shafts called Jan and Julie declared cultural monuments of the Czech Republic include expositions that clearly display the method of mining and the movement of mining cars.

10. Královecký Špičák
The dominant Vraní hory mountain range seems to resemble a flying crow with outstretched wings. From its highest peak called Špičák, you can enjoy wonderful views of the Krkonoše Mountains and is popular for paragliding activities.

11. Stachelberg Fortress
It comprises a huge fortress and other military objects. One of the largest military bunkers in Bohemia with a historical exhibition and an extensive underground system is located here. The dominant feature of the area is the Eliška observation tower.

12. Forest swimming centre, Retropark Sejfy
The summer forest atmosphere of the swimming pool creates a pleasant environment for relaxation and at the same time offers sufficient space for sports activities. During the summer days it offers a pleasant garden restaurant. Accommodation is also available here.

16. Weaving mill with museum exposition in the “Dům Pod Jasanem”
The visit of the exposition will give you a closer look at peoples' lives in Krkonoše cottages, their crafts and equipment they used. You will get to know the story of Jan the weaver and try out the weaving craft.

17. Adršpašsko-Teplice rocks
It is the largest rock labyrinth formation in the Czech Republic. A national wild-life reserve well known for its high rock formations, a lake with crystal clear blue water, a waterfall and a magic countryside. Advance online bookings are necessary.

18. Chvaleč and Petřkovice
The villages invite you to participate in sporting activities, with Chvaleč swimming pool available in the summer and Petřkovice ski-run in the winter. Tourists and cyclists can seasonally use the border crossing to Poland. You can visit a remarkable cliff, which forms the Kraus Lookout in the area.

19. Trutnov Trails
A network of one-way off-road mountain bikes trails in the location of Čížkovy kameny and Jestřebí mountains. The tracks are of varying difficulty, with tracks available for beginners to more experienced bikers. At the starting point, in a small village Lhota, near Trutnov, there is a mountain bike rental and a restaurant.

20. Slavětín – Chapel of St. Joseph
The main feature of the interior of the chapel is a modern altar decorated with floating wire sculptures by author Veronika Psotková. The renovated chapel is opened during social events.

21. Hostinné
One of the oldest towns in the Krkonoše region, well known for its Renaissance town hall with colourful statues of two giants. The Franciscan Monastery with its museum and Gallery of Ancient Art is worth a visit.

22. Dolce Camp near Trutnov
Sports and recreation area with a lake, sports fields and children's attractions. Accommodation is available in cabins with private bathroom facilities and spacious sites for caravans and tents. There is also a refreshment stall nearby.

23. Bohumír copper mine
The underground route is more than 400 m long, and at the end there is a test for you – a mining ladder climb through a ventilation shaft to the surface of the earth. At the same time, you will be reminded of the hard work involved in mining and quarrying.

24. Velké Svatoňovice
The village is located at the foot of the Jestřebí mountains. The dominant feature is the chapel of St. Václav, from where it is a short walk to the Firefighters Museum. Another interesting location is the protected snowbell meadow – “Bledulová louka” in the spring.

25. Malé Svatoňovice
The village popularly known as a little spring, “Studánka” is the birthplace of the well-known author Karel Čapek. To honour his works the Museum of the Čapek Brothers was established in the square. From there you can take a steep walk to the Žaltman lookout tower. During the trip you will come across the Marian Orchard and small chapels of the Seven Joys of the Virgin Mary, the Stations of the Cross and the Holy Sepulchre.

26. Radeč Cottage Museum
In two former cowsheds, you can see an extensive collection of historical objects from all the activities of our ancestors' lives (crafts, toys, farming, clothing, household equipment, etc.)

27. Úpice
Let's go to Úpice to see the stars! In the local observatory you can observe the stars, planets and especially the Sun. Don't miss NKP Dřevěnka, a jewel of old architecture, a unique timber structure documented as early as the 16th century, today one of the seats of the Municipal Museum with an open-air exhibition.

28. Rtyne in Podkrkonoší
It will take you the whole day to visit the Municipal Museum and the educational trail called “Mining monuments tour”. The dominant feature of the town is the unique wooden bell tower from the 16th century built with the beams held together by wooden nails. A unique cultural event is the Koletova Rtně, a brass band festival, which always takes place in May.

29. Havlovice
Havlovice is the winner of the “Village of the Czech Republic” in 2007. It has a modern sports area. There is a mooring for boat activities on the bank of the Úpa river. It is the starting point for a trip to Vízmburk castle or for a walk along the Úpa River to “Babiččino údolí”.

30. Vízmburk Castle Ruins
The castle was built in the early Gothic period, and it was abandoned shortly after the Hussite wars. It was rediscovered in the 1970s, when the castle was excavated and thanks to the enthusiasm of local volunteers, returned to the tourist map as an important medieval monument with a rich cultural life.

31. The Zvičina Hill
The most beautiful view of the Krkonoše mountains is from the unique rotating glass dome in Rais' Cottage located on the top of the Zvičina hill. The view from the top of the hill will show you the Ještěd hill, the Jizera Mountains, the entire Krkonoše Mountains, Vraní, Stolové and Orlické mountains. The family Hotel Pod Zvičinou offers a unique experience.
